Introduction

Oink allows a child or teenager to transact online using a digital allowance without having to provide any personally identifiable information. Parent account holders set up an account for themselves in Oink and associate one or more payment methods to fund transactions made by their child accounts. Oink currently supports credit cards and PayPal as funding mechanisms.

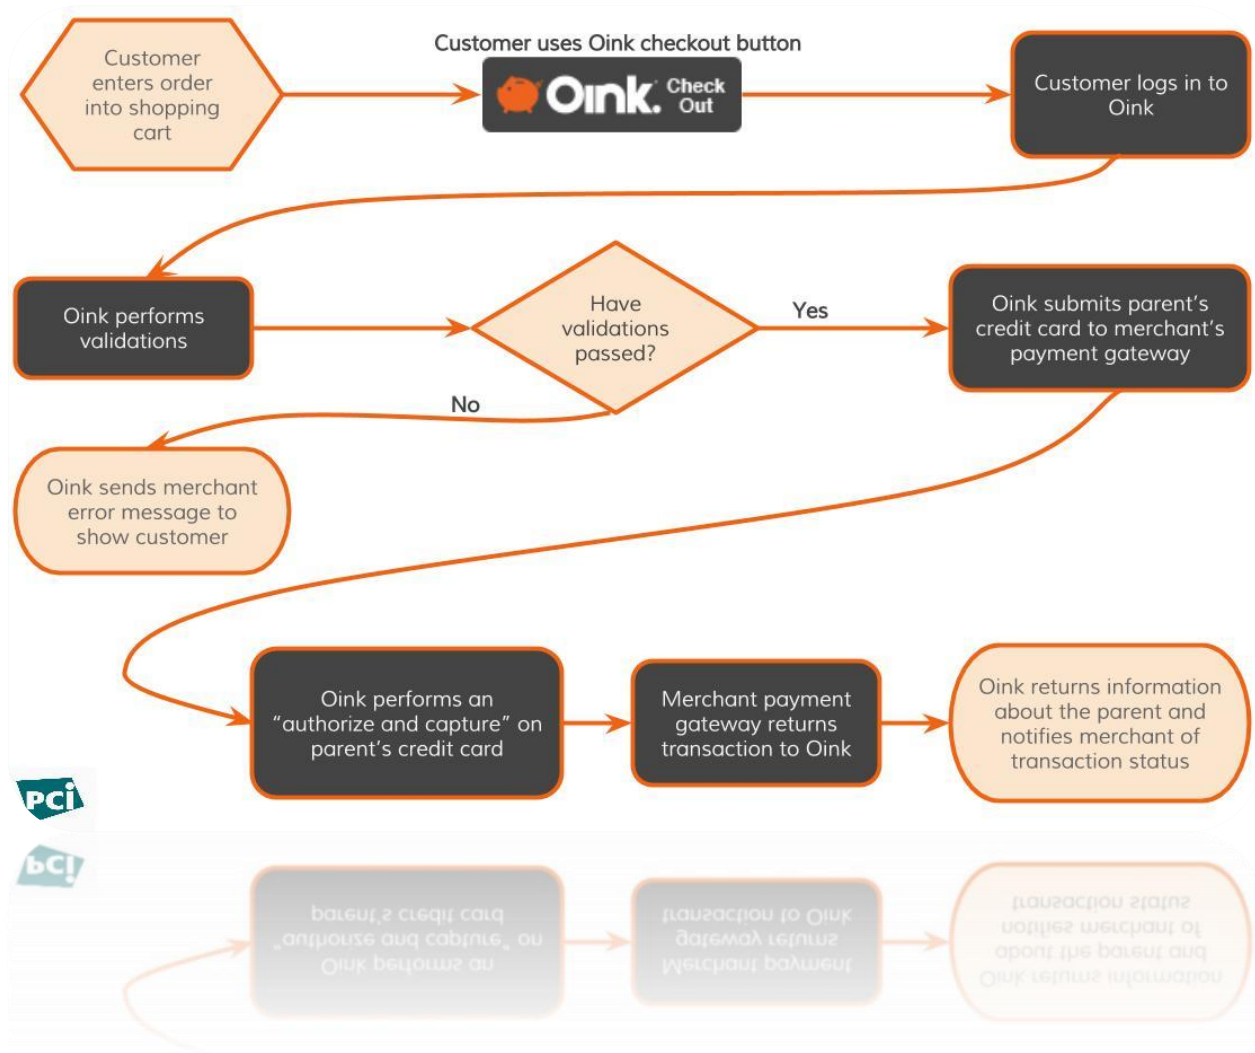

Parent account holders set up profiles for their child accounts; and can set rules such as a monthly allowance, spending limits, approval rules; and provide details such as account holder gender and age. Based on this information, Oink curates a list of age appropriate merchants for the child account holder to shop at.

Account holders checkout using the Oink checkout button on merchant sites. Oink determines if the account holder is allowed to transact at the merchant and if any limits are being violated. If no limits are violated, Oink charges the parent account holder and pays the merchant by transacting with the merchants payment gateway. The merchant is also provided information about the parent account holder such as name, address and email.
